Lahiru Sandaruwan's first solo exhibition at Paradise Road Galleries invites viewers on a profound journey through his personal exploration of life's perpetual motion. Since young adulthood, Sandaruwan has been immersed in a life marked by a constant state of flux, which he embraces and translates into his art. This exhibition serves as a testament to his intimate relationship with movement, reflected in ambiguous figures and a subdued palette that speaks to the transient nature of existence. The canvas becomes a stage where deformed figures emerge, their twisted and elongated limbs stretching into the space between reality and abstraction.

Sandaruwan's artistic narrative delves deep into the intricacies of human form, exploring the inherent tension between stability and motion. His compositions resonate with a poignant beauty, drawing observers into a world where uncertainty is both unsettling and strangely comforting. Nurtured by his education at the Vibhavi Academy of Fine Art, Sandaruwan's experimental practice offers a visual narrative that transcends the boundaries of individual circumstance, inviting viewers to explore their own encounters with change and impermanence.
